Alleppey The Venice Of The East

Overview Alleppey The Venice Of The East

Alleppey is one of the most popular tourist destinations for its serene backwaters, beaches, and lush greenery. Alleppey tourism offers a unique and tranquil experience to visitors. One of the main attractions in Alleppey, also known as Alappuzha, is the backwaters- a network of interconnected canals, lakes and lagoons that run parallel to the Arabian Sea. You can go for a leisurely boat ride along these backwaters, enjoying the scenic beauty of the surrounding landscapes.
 The backwaters are also famous for their houseboat cruises, where tourists can stay overnight on a traditional Kerala houseboat and enjoy the serene beauty of the backwaters. The houseboats have all modern amenities and offer a unique and comfortable experience. Another popular attraction in Alleppey is its beaches. Alleppey beach is a long stretch of golden sand perfect for a relaxing stroll or a dip in the sea. Alleppey is also famous for its lush greenery and serene landscapes. Visitors can explore the numerous paddy fields, coconut groves, and banana plantations scattered around the town.
 Alleppey is beautiful in terms of backwaters, beaches and natural beauty!!! Indeed it is worth a visit!

Day 1 Cochin to Alleppey (02:30Hrs Drive)

Arrive at Cochin Airport/Railway station and transfer to Alleppey House Boat Jetty. At Noon check into the Houseboat. Enjoy the backwaters in the Houseboat and meander through the narrow Canals and villages. The houseboats, also known as "Kettuvallams," meaning floating houses with all modern amenities, make them a popular option for tourists to experience the backwaters of Kerala.
 The boat then sets sail through the backwaters, allowing guests to enjoy the lush greenery, palm trees, and water birds that call the backwaters their home. The boat cruises through narrow canals and more extensive waterways, providing an unforgettable view and experience. Lunch, evening snacks and dinner will be provided in the houseboat. Enjoy an overnight stay at Houseboat.

Day 2 Drop at Cochin

After breakfast, checkout from the Houseboat. We will drop you at cochin airport for your onward journey.
